Betty and Jack are fraternal twins (they look different). They go to different schools. Most of Becky's and Jack's friends are aware of their relationship. However, Becky's new friend, an exchange student from Ethiopia, is unaware of it. One day, Becky called her friends for a hangout and Jack joined them. When Becky saw Jack coming, she hid behind a tree and jumped on him. A surprised Jack then started hitting Becky. All their friends were laughing, except for one, Jumaiya, Becky's new friend. She could not understand how Becky could hit a friend (that she never met) so much and others were not doing anything about it.

Analyze why Jumaiya thought regarding this situation in terms of contexts & culture. Write your answer inside the box below.
