

How do we determine the domain and range??

- Determine the domain and range of the inner function.
- The DOMAIN of the composite IS the RANGE of the inner (use  $x$  instead of  $y$  of course).
- The RANGE of the composite is then determined by subbing its domain restrictions into the outer function.